

Press release CASALE DEI CEDRI

Casale dei Cedri Resort is an old home of the late 19th century, located in the heart of Rome just a few minutes away from Saint Peter. The Casale, next to Villa Doria Pamphili, is surrounded by a 3-hectare park. An Italian style garden, beautifully preserved, designed by box hedges and shadowed by secular pines, gives the resort an old times romantic atmosphere. The old family home has been recently transformed, by Adriana Lambardi di San Miniato, into a charming resort, purposely maintaining the cozy and friendly atmosphere that has always been present in this place. Two Junior suites and a Superior suite, each one marked by a colour, furnished with original pieces of those times and carefully studied in every detail, reflect the lifestyle typical of the old country houses. Breakfast, with biological food and all homemade, is the resort's pride and it is served by the pool during spring and summer and in the evocative warmth of the living room heated by the fireplace during the winter. During the warm season the swimming pool immersed in the greenery gives the opportunity to spend relaxing moments. On request from our guests it is possible to organize brunches or special dinners. "Casale dei Cedri" is a pleasant combination for a staying in an elegant country villa in the centre of Rome and the chance to visit the eternal city. The Casale has a privileged location for those who want to reach the historical centre in few minutes, either by private car or by public transport. The stay can be made even more unique by planning excursions with expert tour guides, to discover art sites and out of town itineraries, looking for the wealthiness and the typical food of Lazio region. Courses as well as food and wine tasting sessions are organized periodically. The privacy and the tranquility of the resort make it the ideal place to stay during business trips or for business women looking for not-so-impersonal place where one can feel at home and pampered.
